Share Your Story

We would love to hear about your delicious parties. Please let us know what you are planning, or what you did, for your Sweet Treat Social. Send us your stories and pictures so we can display them online to provide ideas and inspiration to others. We will post them on the Sjögren’s Society of Canada website and Facebook. We may use them for the Sjögren’s Society Newsletter, promotion, awareness campaign or to attract attention in the media. Mail your form to: Sjögren’s Society of Canada, 32 Oneida Drive, Brantford, ON N3S 0A8 or Email your form and pictures to: sweettreats@sjogrenscanada.org

Name ________________________________
Address______________________________
City__________________________ Prov__________
Telephone____________________ Email________________________

Tell us about your Sweet Treat Social

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Why did you want to participate in the Sweet Treat Social?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Your suggestions for a successful Sweet Treat Social

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

*Note that if you send stories and pictures, you are agreeing to allow the Sjögren’s Society of Canada to use same for posts and promotion of this event.